We could be the most satisfied people in Alberta. Are you willing to smoke 3 packets of cigarettes less each month, or ten glasses of beer, or you name it? Do you know what we could do with this small amount of money you would save? Are you willing to read and to consider the following suggestions for which we would be very grateful.

Since 1961 we have been talking and talking about a swimming pool and an arena in our Town. Numerous committees, and petitions were formed and presented in many different ways to support one or the other. Beside these petitions and committees we have had and have numerous other personal ideas and suggestions in this field, all coming out of good hearts and good intentions.

At the moment we have people who are only in favour of a swimming pool, others only in favour of an arena, others favouring a library, others favouring a sports complex, recreation centre, tennis courts etc., etc., All of us who were or are involved in one of these promotional recreational activities could never finish their job completely because other ideas are suggested killing all others before. Don't think that this variety of strong coloured ideas and suggestions is a bad sign for our Town! This proves undoubtedly that we can be proud of our citizens who at least show a keen interest in the recreational development of our Town. If all these people could come together as one strong unit behind a centennial recreational project there wouldn't be any doubt that St. Albert will have all these recreational facilities in a short space of time!

We call upon all those citizens who over so many years carried such warm feelings towards all our children to provide them with adequate recreational facilities. We call upon our local service clubs who have shown us so many times that they are eager to spend time and money for the sake of any recreational improvement in our Town. We call upon our older citizens, who despite having no longer any young ones at home, were many times big pushers for the sake of recreational facilities in our Town, and we call upon all citizens as a whole, young and old, poor or rich, that our good town needs these facilities for so many reasons. From now on we should work together to reach the goal before CENTENNIAL YEAR. Therefore we must realize that we can only succeed if we accept the ideas of others and admit that the others are also fighting for a town which can provide, and advertise to be up to date in the Recreational Field.

The more recreation, the less crime. The more recreation facilities the less money spent outside our Town. The more local recreational facilities, the less scattered family recreational activities outside our Town, which would of course include less travelling expenses etc., etc., etc.,

If all of us can agree in principle with the above mentioned thoughts we come to the point that you are the ones who can solve all these problems.

If you are willing to make a small financial sacrifice—once per month for the sum of approximately $1.00 to $1.25 per family, we then could reach our desired goal which has been for 5 years controversial and a sore in this Town. If we add this small amount to our water bill every month the town council could pass a debenture by-law of approximately $400,000.00 which would secure us of the following marvelous RECREATIONAL SPORTS COMPLEX.

1. An indoor swimming pool, international size, to train all our children not only the pleasant sport of swimming but more important the safety side of it.
2. An arena, with as many club rooms as possible, in which, not only with many other much smaller towns, but to provide our prominent hockey players with a home. This arena should have a concrete floor to enable us to have our own:
 - a) RINGO (each service organization in town could have 2 or 3 Rings per year which would give them tremendous financial help.
 - b) Indoor parades - (INDOOR RODEO, (no rain insurance)
 - c) Indoor track and field.
 - d) School togetherness etc.,
 - e) Conventions clubs etc.,
 - f) All other indoor activities, or rained out outdoor activities.
3. Renovation of the St. Albert Community Hall, for all kinds of club activities.
4. Tennis Courts, as present courts are not only old fashioned and dangerous, but absolutely useless for the development of the sport of tennis.

Above suggestions do not include or propose stage building developments. This is not necessary if all of you decide to pay this $1.00 to $1.25 extra per month on your water bill. Let's forget about an open swimming pool which we can only use 4 months out of the year. Let's forget about an arena without an ice plant and concrete floor! Let's make use of these buildings every day, every hour, the whole year round, and let all of us enjoy it so much after we have waited such a long - long time!

WHAT A TREMENDOUS CENTENNIAL PROJECT, SUPPORTED BY ALL OF US IN A PAINLESS WAY.

Talking with different citizens about this idea we are more convinced that it can and should be done! Some of them were even willing to pay more, WHICH IS NOT NECESSARY. This project must be supported by everybody. It must be a gift FROM ALL OF US TO ALL OF US, ending the five year unfruitful talks in this field. Let the town put a ballot slip in the next water bill envelope and we hope that a very strong majority will vote in favour of the CENTENNIAL RECREATIONAL PROJECT.

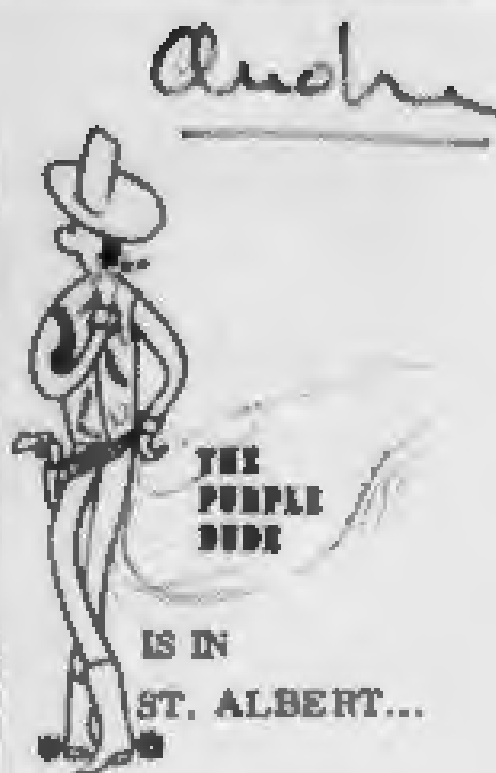

LIBRARY

As approximately six hundred rate payers have expressed that a library for our Town is a necessity and that the present brand new CLUBHOUSE on Greenville Avenue could be used as an ideal library in this case we have the Centennial Library project already completed. The final decision is now up to Council to declare this clubhouse as our NEW LIBRARY.

Let everybody in town be HAPPY and SATISFIED to assure that all of us will enjoy in a most abundant way our CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS.

The New Gazette ...

The Gazette appears today in a new size. After five years we have decided to change from magazine into tabloid. The reasons for this change are, we believe as the town grows we should grow also. St. Albert's residential programme is increasing and we have to be ahead before it is completed. We also have to follow the national advertising customs, which made a change in column and paper size necessary. Also we are convinced that St. Albert has a great future in which we like to live and work with all the other citizens in a most progressive way. We hope that our decision may be of benefit to our TOWN and its PEOPLE.

COMPARISON

IS ALWAYS IMPORTANT!

As some people are complaining about our MILL RATE and are wondering if we are going sky-high we publish with pleasure the 1965 MILL RATES of different Towns and Cities in Alberta. This will provide you with the opportunity to compare these rates with the 1965 St. Albert MILL RATE.

Checking this out we must admit that we don't belong to the sky-high group, although different Towns are doing a little better. Nevertheless we should not forget that most of those Towns who are lower than us don't have the service (roads - sidewalks etc.,) on a standard as we have here in St. Albert.

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN

HELICOPTER HERALDS ST. ALBERT'S FIRST TRUST CO.

Mayor R. S. Fowler is flying on Thursday to St. Albert to open the first trust company in the town at the Grandis Shopping Centre. The company - the Alberta Helicopter Trust Company - a company incorporated under the Trust Companies Act of Alberta. The Mayor will be accompanied by Mr. Donald M. Whamond, Vice President and Managing Director of the company. The helicopter is expected to land in the Grandis Shopping Centre at 4:45 p.m. The St. Albert Air Cadets Band will be in attendance.

OPENING DAY CEREMONIES

The new branch at St. Albert is typical of those constructed by the company. Each new branch is designed to portray quality, dignity and care has been taken to provide customers with pleasant atmosphere embodying good taste, comfort and friendly service.

During the opening days, all the female personnel will be dressed in grey, Khaki-style attire. As part of their opening proceedings, the company is offering a variety of top brand gifts which will be available to new customers when they open an account of $50 or more.

(Gene) Zapf the manager of their St. Albert branch located in Grandis Park Shopping Centre. Mr. Zapf has had eight years of previous experience in the financial field and extends an invitation to everyone to come and meet him at the new premises.

Dear Sir:

Many people are beginning to wonder where we are headed as a Town. Are we progressing or are we stagnating. Where are the skating arenas and swimming pools that other towns seem to be able to afford. Why are we looking services instead of increasing them.

The recent action of the Council in discontinuing garbage pick up service is a backward step and in my opinion they are backing down on an agreement made with the people who bought homes here. The continued inability of council to come to grips with a recreational program is pathetic to say the least. We expect decision and leadership from our elected officials but none seems to be forthcoming.

Some private citizens have spent hours of hard work trying to promote a good recreational program but their efforts have been thwarted because the town has no long range program. Those of us on school boards who are close to the problems we face with young people know that we must provide recreational outlets for our youngsters. Indeed, it is essential.

St. Albert must become more than just a place where we come to sleep and where we pay our taxes. We have reached a turning point and it's time the Council gave some leadership and used some imagination. I hope they start by replacing our garbage service and by providing a comprehensive recreation program.

Robert A. Russell.

certainly can put out another five and one half cent per week to have somebody look after his garbage. Furthermore, it has put 2 citizens out of work who have done at least a personal service. I'd rather help pay the wages of these people than being assessed a higher tax every year for helping pay for mistakes and wrong decisions of past council members, who can blame nobody but themselves. This week's garbage pick-up showed clearly the unconcern of the present pick-up crew. Since the town does not look after the boulevards, it is up to the homeowners to make their place look neat or not.

I have needed (town supplied me with just enough seed) my (their) boulevard, watered and cut it through the seasons, pampered and nursed it. NOW, they're asking me to put 2 to 4 heavy garbage cans on it and have it ruined. Yesterday I put my 4 cans just off the town sidewalk onto my walk, but heavens...they couldn't go an extra 15 feet to pick them up. Why not ask the citizens of St. Albert to bring it right down to the dump...or will they soon??

Why hold elections and plebiscites when people still don't get what they vote for? Platforms are fine and in a lot of cases sound very good. But are these people, who usually see everything so "easy" aware, that carrying out their promises and following through with their ideas and convictions is a different task altogether?

Let's try and satisfy the citizens of St. Albert first before satisfying a personal ego.

Wake up citizens of St. Albert... voice your opinions!

Gordon Schmitt.

An open letter to Council and the parents of St. Albert.

What has become of the election promises made regarding sports in St. Albert? Do Council honestly believe that the young people of this town will support them in their efforts to put the projects of Canada's Centennial celebrations over the top after the way they have been let down?

Do the parents of this fair town know or care that some of their boys are using model cement in paper bags to get what they call "KICKS"?

Mr. Gibb has resigned and Mr. Walsh has stated that he will have no more to do with sport in this town. Is it not up to Council to tell the people of St. Albert of the plans Mr. Gibb had for recreation in this town and their reaction to the plans. The coaches of Minor Hockey were let down very badly by both parties but even this did not stop them, until it became obvious that Mr. Gibb was not to be convinced he was needed very badly here.

Dear Sir:

I believe, it is high time, that the people of St. Albert speak for themselves, since our council seems to be unable to govern and lead our once so prosperous town.

The so-called "back" ward decisions this council quite often makes.

After living here in St. Albert for five years I like the location and people. I have yet to see some thing constructive done other than a few road built. My taxes have increased from year to year, the services are not up to par to what and in the past years there have been no improvements.

When I moved to St. Albert in 1963, it was a small town, that was then called "Edmonton", which is a little more progressive than the others. I moved to St. Albert and there were no council rules, but the council had no explanation of anything except people living here in St. Albert. Why should we be treated as a better town than we are? It was further explained that there is a school system of $2.00 for the first 3 years, then that the improvements are paid for 90,000 people living here. This means that the council is not up to the task of a better town than we are. It was further explained that there is a school system of $2.00 for the first 3 years, then that the improvements are paid for 90,000 people living here. This means that the council is not up to the task of a better town than we are.

I hope would appreciate an answer to this matters.

To top it all off, Alamo has now decided that every home owner has to put out his own garbage. This is definitely a big step backwards and "the sausage out at the wrong end". Considering that this will save the home owners $3.00 per year makes me laugh (or stink). We are paying such high taxes, and utilities that everybody who can still afford to live here,

ST. ALBERT'S BIGGEST WEEKEND

St. Albert's biggest weekend is just around the corner. That's right! On June 17 and 18, the Klansmen Club, together with many church groups and community organizations, will stage Rodeo 105 to celebrate the 105th Birthday of Our Town.

Rodeo 105, with only seven short weeks from being a reality, promises to be the largest extravaganza ever to grace the shores of the Sturgeon River. Top professional cowboys, such as A.L. Round Canadian Champion, Harold Mandrill, Tom Bawa, Tom Butterfield and George Myres, to name only a few, will be on hand to contest for the total prize money of $2,050.00. An added incentive this year will be a Championship Saddle donated by the Brels, to be awarded to the A.L. Round St. Albert Rodeo Champion.

Approximately 100 cowboys will contest in five events. They are Steer Wrestling, Brahma Bull Riding, Calf Roping, Bareback Horse Riding and Saddle Horse Riding. In addition, the show will include Girls Barrel Racing, clowns and many other spectacular attractions. Contestants will perform on the finest stock available in Canada or the United States. Reg Kessler, known all over the continent for supplying stock for championship rodeos, the most notable being the Calgary Stampede, will again be this year's stock contractor.

No rodeo can be a success without a good announcer and Bill Holt, famous all over the U.S.A., will be here to see that each of the events comes off with split second timing and to describe the action as it takes place.

West Coast Shows will set up a Giant Midway on the grounds and will offer twenty rides for the enjoyment of both children and adults. Church groups and other community organizations will provide food, refreshment and amusement booths. Any clubs wishing to serve the community in this worthwhile event by operating a booth, are asked to contact Rod Erickson at 599-7635 or Tom White at 599-7137.

Last year's parade was an unqualified success, however, this year's Rodeo 105 Parade, on Saturday June 18th, at 10:00 a.m., is shaping up to be even greater, and will feature the Edmonton Klondike Sheriff's Posse, numerous bands and many floats manned by the children of our community. Any group interested in participating in the parade should contact Parade Chairman, Bob Farrant at 599-6268. Remember, time is running out and parade entries are limited.

No rodeo is complete without a Rodeo Queen and last year's Queen, Miss Jean Houle, was one of the highlights of the entire show. Although the Rodeo 105 Queen Contest is not finalized, it is hoped that the many organizations in St. Albert will support this gala occasion by sponsoring a contestant. Any inquiries regarding the Queen Contest should be directed to Ken Pollon at 599-6626 or Jim Irwin at 599-7443. To the winning Queen goes a $500.00 wardrobe and to the winning ticket holder, a portable television set.

The Klansmen Club will again raffle off a $500.00 bill. Support your local Klansmen Club by purchasing a ticket. Who knows,.....you may be the lucky winner!

No show can be a success without people. The Klansmen have been planning and working on Rodeo 105 since last December to make this year's spectacular the greatest St. Albert attraction ever.

So, dust off that "Tom Galloway", polish up them boots, pard'ner, and plan a Rodeo Weekend at your house. Remember, "Them boots were meant for walkin'". See you at the Corral -- June 17th, and 18th.

Oh yes! Please pray for NO RAIN!

WHY DID MAX RESIGN?

As Council decided to handle the matter of Max Gibb's resignation as St. Albert's first Recreation Director in a committee of the whole (closed committee) we are not able to inform our citizens in a way we think should be done. The minutes of this meeting do not mention the reasons why Max Gibb has resigned. We believe that all our citizens have the right to know this. Numerous rumours are now created which doesn't help any of us! To know more about this case we asked Max the following questions:

1. QUESTION: Do you think that the Parks and Recreational Department should be under one head?
ANSWER: I do but not under all circumstances.
2. QUESTION: Do you believe that a Separate Parks and Recreation Department could work smoother?
ANSWER: Yes, under certain circumstances.
3. QUESTION: Was this one of the reasons that you decided to resign?
ANSWER: Yes.
4. QUESTION: Do you think that in case of one Department the Head should have a Degree in Recreation and horticulture?
ANSWER: Should have at least background in both.
5. QUESTION: Have you ever approached the Council and Recreation Board in regard to this matter?
ANSWER: I have tried to establish lines of Authority but as the Recreation Board didn't have any authority itself they couldn't decide upon it. Further I have approached my superiors who told me that they would consider this matter which they never did.

Max Gibb was not willing to give us more information. He is at present in charge as Co-ordinator for teenage activities in Edmonton for the Parks and Recreation Department. In September he will decide if this position will become a permanent one.

TEACHERS APPRECIATION NIGHT

The students of Paul Kane High School honoured their teachers at a recent Teacher Appreciation Night. A large crowd of teachers and students alike attended the banquet which was organized completely by the students. The purpose of the evening was to acknowledge the teachers for the extra hours of work which they put in serving as coaches and advisors to students participating in extra curricular activities.

After the buffet dinner, the students presented the teachers with many gifts in appreciation of their work. The banquet was such a success that the students believe it will take a permanent place in yearly student activities.

SUGAR AND SPICE

A Red-Eyed Teacher

Ever been on shift work? Most nurses have. Many industrial workers have. Farmers, executives, merchants, office workers — and until recently, teachers — have not had that delightful experience.

First time I ran into it was on my first job, when I was 17 — back in the middle ages, some times known as the Dirty Thirties. I have been a stalwart champion of the working man ever since.

It was on a steamboat on the Great Lakes. Seven days a week. For a dollar a day.

I worked the graveyard shift. Except that in those days it was a shift and a half, from mid night to dawn. And it seemed to be rolling a little every mid night. Just enough to make you queer.

Sick at heart, sick at stomach, we groggily made our way to the galley, about 11:30 p.m. for breakfast.

The night cook was a jolly Oriental gentleman called Sing. He couldn't sing. And he couldn't cook, either. But his heart was in the right place. He knew we needed sustenance for the 12 hours ahead.

Chuckling merrily, he'd pile our plates with greasy eggs, greasy ham, greasy fried potatoes. Sometimes, for a change there'd be greasy sausages and bread fried in grease.

Even a 17-year-old stomach-the human organ that most closely resembles a cement mixer, couldn't take it. We used to push the greasy gob around the plate, and settle for some greasy coffee.

But the clincher, the thing that really made our stomachs heave, that made us rush from the galley to our jobs of cleaning out the latrines, was the dessert.

Triumphantly, Sing would sing out: "You like nice Boston Cream Pie? I got it!" Now, as you probably know, Boston Cream Pie is a rich, luscious concoction of custard topped with cream. Almost 30 years later, I still gas when I see it on a menu.

As you may have gathered, I didn't like shift work then. And it hasn't improved much during the intervening years.

This year, at our school, we're on a double shift. A combination of post-war baby boom and bureaucratic red tape have produced a situation in which the populations of two entire schools, some 2,000 students, are sharing a building intended for half that number.

The school board had two alternatives. They could have each student hold another student on his or her knee all day, or they could run two shifts.

They favored the former, because it would save on teachers, lighting and books. But some parents were pretty annoyed at the idea of their 58-pound daughters holding a 200-pound football player in their laps all day. So the school board finally compromised and voted for the shift system.

And that's why your faithful reporter tumbled out of bed at 4:15, wildly groping for the alarm clock, has a coffee break, if there is one at 8 a.m. and eats lunch about 10:30 in the morning.

In theory, it's wonderful. Teachers have all afternoon to sleep, golf, curl or bent and the evening to prepare lessons. Good for the students, too. They have their homework all done by dinner time and can watch TV or wash their hair, or go to the poolroom. All we have to do is get to bed a couple of hours earlier than in the good old days.

In practice, it's horrible. Wives persecute husbands in the afternoon with shopping, wrangling, repairing, nagging. If you sleep in the afternoon, you lie stark, staring, insomniacal at night. If you work or play, you fall asleep in the middle of dinner, baked potato, half cheese.

Nobody ever is fed any better than they ever did. And what we do eat is with it a pedestrian, unexcited, unadventurous at the edges, lacking a couple of exciting ingredients, some of them turning up at 5 a.m. to catch the school bus every morning at 5:45.

Teachers' Unions: Good Teachers

Training School, at the April meeting of the U.C.W. A most enlightening question period and discussion followed their address.

Our congregation has been invited to participate in the "All People's Mission" camp tea, to be held on May 18th, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Russell United Church, 24th Street and 103A Avenue.

The proceeds from this tea will be used for the camp at Moonlight Bay.

Next Sunday is "Mothers Day" or Christian Family Sunday. The two services on Sunday morning will be on the theme of the Christian Family. Infant Baptism will be conducted.

Mr. Bill Webber, chairman of the Property Committee has called for a work-bee again this Saturday. One will begin at 9:30 and another 2:00 p.m. Bring rakes, shovels, and wheelbarrows to do foundation landscaping of the manse.

ANGLICAN CHURCH

VICAR IN SASKATCHEWAN:

During the Vicar's absence attending the Alumni Lectures at Emmanuel College, emergency ministrations will be provided by the Rev. R. Calderwood of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Edmonton. (Ph. 455-3270). Mr. Dapkins will be leaving Tuesday morning and returning Friday night.

NEXT SUNDAY:

USED CLOTHING DRIVE:

The W.A. are sponsoring a collection of good used adult and children's clothing and foot-wear.

Spring clean your closets and bring the surplus to the service next Sunday. The W.A. will see that it gets to St. Martin's House, from where it will be distributed during the summer and fall to those in need.

TUESDAY MAY 10th:

Vestry meet at the Vicarage at 8:00 p.m.

YOUNG PEOPLE MAY CALL ON YOU:

As part of their drive to triple the number of families receiving the diocesan church paper the young people plan to visit a select number of families whom we feel would value this publication. It's a bargain! For $1.00 per year the subscriber gets all ten issues of the "Diocese" which is the best diocesan paper in the country, together with a free subscription to the "Canadian Churchman", which is the national Anglican monthly. At the recent Synod it was recommended that these two papers be placed in every home. We may not get them into EVERY home, but a 90% increase is not a bad start. Get yours when the young people call.

MARGUERITE D'YOVILLE AUXILIARY

A Binge was held for the patients at the Yoville Home, Saturday April 30th. Lunch was served, and a nice time was had by all. The installation of the new executive will take place at the regular meeting to be held May 10th, at 8:30 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all members as well as prospective members.

DEAR DORIS advice from Doris Clark

Hurt By His Sitters

DEAR DORIS — The school boy, age seven, takes no interest in anything and says everything is stupid. He doesn't get along with his younger brother or the other children. He seems to baby talk more to his wife.

When he was younger, I used to work and have a baby-sitter. Some would wrap him and leave him alone a lot.

He is really not a bad kid. It's just this stubbornness. When I ask him to do something, he simply ignores me. He cries easily and is really hurt. The teacher says he doesn't want to get ahead in school work.

Baffled Mother

DEAR HAPPIED — Some thing has discouraged him from even trying to meet academic challenges, and I'd suspect the inadequate baby-sitter. That is, experience. Though not to be considered by little kids, our own impressions.

You try harder early than for him to meet so, who should I be ignore you now? I will take a while to see how he does — and his faith in life.

Thank you — disappointed — rewards. There are the ways to it. Don't ask for achievement which are beyond him, and simply (even) love and affection on him.

DEAR DORIS — In your column you said some people need to improve their voices. I love your advice but I couldn't find anybody who wanted to train voices for speaking, only for singing.

Now I am working on trying to improve my voice with the help of exercises and a tape recorder. I feel I will make it.

Country Cousin

DEAR COUNSEL — (Cheers) Telephone companies have been drilling operators in the proper use of voices for a long time, and tape recorders make it possible for them to hear what they sound like before and after.

DEAR DORIS — I expect to be married soon. Are the groom's parents entitled to be with as many people as their side as they wish, even if that

"NO, SHE'S NOT THE WOMAN WHO HAS EVERYTHING, BUT THAT'S WHAT SHE WANTS."

Leaded Windows

Bryant Jolley, the promoter of Leaded Windows material, is the only St. Albert businessman who is represented at the present Trade Fair in the Sports Building in Edmonton. It is worthwhile to see Bryant's decorated window display which is located inside the colour T.V. booth. The picture shows Bryant Jolley and his assistant at the booth.

BLDG. COMMITTEE MEETING:
Rev. C. Doak, acting Superintendent of Missions for the Synod of Alberta, came from Calgary to attend a meeting of the committee at the Mass on April 27th. He outlined a plan for the construction of a first unit of a permanent Church building, and stated that the Board of Missions favors this approach over the portable building idea. Following a lively discussion by those present, a motion was made that the committee obtain a preliminary estimate of building costs on a first unit and arrange for the drawing up of rough plans for submission to the Church Extension Committee. It is hoped to have this material available at the next meeting of the Building Committee.

MENS WORK CAMP

There is a men's work camp planned for Saturday, May 16th at Camp Kananis on Sylvan Lake. It is hoped that as many men as possible from the Branside congregation will attend to help get Camp Kananis ready for the
